Milk Producers Accept Temporary Increase Good Until February 1

Strike Is Called Off to Take Appeal to the Price Case to Washington, D. C.

Milk producers of this area accepted until February 1 a temporary increase of 26 cents per hundred which was offered Saturday by an OPA official from Dallas. He agreed that he would go to Washington with a delegation from this area and recommend that a further price be granted to the producers.

Producers asked for 60 cent increase. Then threatened to strike and stop deliveries to Amarillo unless the increase was granted.

John Gillham of Clarendon was spokesman for the dairymen. He was assisted in presenting the claims of the producers by Earl Burtz, president of the Randall County Dairymen's Association.

A delegation will leave soon for Washington where the matter of milk prices will be presented for national headquarters.

Mrs. N. E. Root Died Friday at the Family Home

Olive Hoyt Root, daughter of Henry and Maude Moffitt Hoyt, was born at Chillicothe, Illinois, January 28, 1875, and died January 11, 1946, at her home in Canyon.

She graduated from the Chillicothe high school and attended college at Bushnell, Illinois. On November 24, 1898, she married Norris E. Root and they established their home near Chillicothe, Illinois. To this union were born seven children: Edith, Mrs. Lester Leigh, Sparland, Illinois; Ethel, Mrs. Ervin Michael, and Gene Root of Canyon, Texas; Mildred, Mrs. Howard McQuilkin, Granville, Illinois; John Root, Amarillo; Esther, Mrs. Lawrence Brotherton, Gruver, Texas; and Florence, Mrs. Elvert Laughery, Borger, Texas.

After living near Chillicothe for several years, the Root family made their home at Glen Elder, Kansas. In 1920 they moved to Canyon. This city remained her home until her death.

Mrs. Root was a member of the First Christian Church of Canyon. She has been inactive for several years because of failing health.

A great lover of poetry, and a poet herself, one of Mrs. Root's favorite quotations were these immortal words from Bryant: "So live, that when thy summons comes to join

The innumerable caravan, which moves To the mysterious realm, where each shall take His chamber in the silent halls of death

Thou go not, like the quarry slave at night, Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave, Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch

About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams."

Funeral services were conducted at the First Christian Church Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock by Rev. Joseph Findley, pastor of the First Christian Church, assisted by John W. Darby, pastor of West Amarillo Christian Church.

Surviving are her husband, Norris E. Root; the seven children, 24 grandchildren; and two brothers, E. M. Uden of Chillicothe, Illinois and G. M. Uden of Tulsa, Okla.

Pall bearers were A. W. Sternberg, Alfred Bellah, Madison Daugherty, Harley Burrus, Glen Costley, and W. H. McKee. Honorary pall bearers were: H. C. Dolcater, Dr. C. E. Donnell, George Nance, Jeff Wallace and E. C. Penick.

Interment was in Dreamland Cemetery under the direction of Griggs-Warren Funeral Home.

Two Boys Held on Charge Breaking Into Automobile

Bob Wade and Muriel Clark are being held in jail on the charge of breaking into a car at a tourist court in the north part of the county and taking a suit case, sewing machine, three cameras and other items from a couple who were touring from California to Indianapolis. Sheriff M. E. Cantrell arrested the boys when they sought to pawn the stolen items in Amarillo. They are being held for action of the grand jury.

M. E. Cantrell Asks Re-election

M. E. CANTRELL

M. E. Cantrell has authorized The News to announce his candidacy for re-election to the office of Sheriff, Tax Assessor and Collector. His announcement states:

"It is with sincere thankfulness to the voters of Randall county for their splendid cooperation given me in the past and with the belief that I can serve you more efficiently in the future due to my past training, that I ask for re-election.

"The office of Sheriff, Tax Assessor and Collector is very important. Each department has distinct functions of service to the taxpayers. My deputies and I have studied these functions and have administered these duties to the best of our ability. We have received the finest cooperation from the citizens of Randall county, as well as the officers of neighboring towns and counties, and likewise state and federal officers, with whom we are well-acquainted.

"You, the voters of Randall county, are the sole judges as to the qualifications of your public officials. Those in this office remember that we are here to serve you at all times. I submit my candidacy for re-election upon the records of my past administration.

"We are told that the post-war period will bring greater duties to peace officers. My past experience should be considered in dealing with this situation.

"I shall make an effort to see the voters during the campaign, and when you are in Canyon shall appreciate a personal visit from each voter at our offices, and shall give you any information that you may desire. If the duties of this office should deprive me the opportunity to solicit you personally, I trust that you will take this as an invitation to consider my candidacy carefully before the Democratic primary in July," concluded Mr. Cantrell.

Farm-to-Market Bids Taken, But No Further Word

No report has been received from Austin as to the contract for construction of the farm-to-market road to Wayside.

Bids were opened in Austin Thursday. So far as known only one bid was made on this road. Whether or not the bid was accepted has not been made clear by reports from Austin.

At the meeting of the Commissioners Court Monday the rural electrification line along this road was ordered moved in order to take care of the widened right-of-way. A settlement was agreed upon for moving the poles.

Capt. W. Holmes Smith was here Monday getting his house ready for Mrs. Smith and their son, who are visiting in Plainview. The family is expected back today. Capt. Smith has received his discharge from the Army at San Antonio and will resume his work in West Texas State at the beginning of the second semester.

Lt. Houston Bright is back from South Carolina where he has been stationed. He has not received his discharge but has been promised the discharge soon.

Vets Will Get a Free Vote in '46 Texas Elections

Returning war veterans who have been discharged within 18 months of election day may vote free, without a poll tax receipt, in the elections of Texas. Those who have been discharged more than 18 months must pay the poll tax in order to vote.

The Attorney General has issued an opinion which sets May 5, 1945 as the time for discharge which will allow the veterans to vote in the primaries and general election of November 6, 1946. Any veteran who was discharged before May 5, 1945 should pay his poll tax this month in order to be assured a vote. But all who have been discharged since May 5, 1945 will have a free vote this year.

No exemption will be required.

Delivery Will Be Made to Sufferers of Europe in a Record Time State Officials

There has been a good response to the clothing drive for the suffering people of Europe, states J. W. Shook. Clothing is received every afternoon at the Red Cross sewing room.

But there has not been a large enough response. There is need for clothing, more clothing, and more clothing, states Mr. Shook.

Items which are the shortest are: Underclothing and shoes. However any and every kind of clothing is needed at once.

Mr. Shook states that the question of delivery to Europe during the winter has been raised. The national committee in charge of this work states that there is no question about delivery. Facilities have been doubled to bale clothing for shipment. Ships bound for Europe are not heavily loaded with war supplies and ammunition, as they were last year during the drive. The time for delivery to the needy people of Europe has been cut to a minimum.

Mr. Shook urges that all who contribute clothing or any kinds of cloth to the drive shall write a friendly letter for delivery to the suffering people of Europe.

"I have greatly appreciated the privilege of serving the taxpayers of my precinct, as well as those of the entire county during my term of office. I am confident that my record of office, and the experience which I have received, fits me for better service in the future. I am basing my candidacy for re-election upon this record, and trust that each voter will carefully consider my qualifications during this campaign.

"All of you know that I have stood for strict economy during my past years in office. I shall continue this record. Randall county is in excellent financial condition, due to the fine work of your Commissioners Court. We have not raised the tax rate, although other taxing bodies have done so.

"I hope that I shall see each and every voter in Precinct 2 during this campaign, but if I should miss any of you it will be entirely unintentional. I shall deem it a great privilege to continue serving you in the future and want you to accept this message as a personal invitation for your support and vote in the July Democratic primary," concluded Mr. Beckman.

First Moisture Since the Middle of October Will Be Great Benefit to Wheat

The Panhandle is blanketed with snow as the result of moisture which started to fall Monday night.

Snow in Canyon measured a foot in most places. The fall was heavier to the south and west, but tapered off to the north. Amarillo did not receive so much snow as fell in Canyon. Counties on the North Plains received very little snow, according to reports.

A light wind accompanied the storm, which piled up the snow to a considerable degree on the east to west roads. However, the snow stayed on the fields very well and will bring much needed moisture to the wheat crop.

The streets of Canyon were practically impassable early Tuesday morning. Streets were lined with marooned cars. A few who had mud chains were able to get their cars out for use. But there was no joy riding, due to the hard driving.

Many people were stranded in Canyon Monday night and Tuesday waiting for the highways to be opened. Many were unable to find lodging, and cafes did a flourishing business when local business men and women were unable to go home for their lunches.

The highways were cleared late Tuesday, but motorists were warned to drive carefully, due to the ice and snow on the pavement.

A hard freeze Tuesday night set the snow. The weatherman predicts warmer weather which will melt most of the snow before the week end.

The Canyon public schools did not open Tuesday or Wednesday since so many of the pupils live in the country and could not reach the schools.

All highway traffic by trucks and buses was suspended Tuesday. Mail service was greatly curtailed with trains running later than usual.

This was the first moisture of any consequence since the middle of October. Wheat farmers had become worried over the prospects for a wheat crop this year. Due to the small crop of feed in 1945, wheat pasture was badly needed to carry cattle through the winter months. This moisture should get the wheat crop started again.

Delinquent Tax Roll Has Long List of Names

Tax Collector M. E. Cantrell has received from the State Comptroller a delinquent tax rolls of all unpaid taxes in Randall county. The roll is an impressive looking volume of 400 pages.

Take a look on the inside and see what you find.

The roll totals $25,276.83. But what an assortment of property. There are pages, and pages of vacant lots in Canyon on which taxes have not been paid for years. These pages and these vacant lots constitute the major part of the roll.

Remember the big lot sale which was put on several years ago in the Southeast part of town by a Fort Worth promoter? Many Canyon people bought lots. The promoter had a large number left on his hands. Practically all of the buyers have either died, or moved away. The lots are delinquent in taxes practically since the sale was pulled off.

Randall county has been trying to clean up the rolls, and suit has been brought against many of the vacant lots. When the sale is pulled off, the buyer will be confronted by the state law which provides that the original owner may redeem the property within two years. This makes it impossible to make any improvements for two years.

There are several very desirable lots on this delinquent list. They would sell quickly, if it were not for this provision of the law; for prospective buyers would wish to build as soon as materials become available.

What a headache these delinquent taxes turn out to be.

Bids in Saturday

WILL CONGRESS ACT?

People are wondering what Congress will do following the tongue lashing it received from President Truman on reconversion problems. Congress reconvenes this week after the Christmas holidays. The members have been home to see what the people think.

Washington correspondents have summed up the situation about like this:

The popular response was not so great as the President expected. Democrats have not fallen in line like he might have anticipated.

Truman is a popular man in Washington; has the best intention in the world; but is so much weaker in personality and radio technique than was Roosevelt that he is not taking the dominant role in national affairs.

Truman is seeking to continue wartime restrictions on the nation. He has the backing of CIO, which wants the government to continue running everything. The people are sick of government interference, and therefore rebel against war restriction in peace time.

The government has been playing up eminent unemployment and making dire predictions as to the number who will be unemployed. Yet the restrictions of labor unions are so strong that they will not take on more men, but want to increase their own wages by the system of shorter hours at wartime pay.

Washington reports that when the President asked Congress to submit its own plan, if his was not satisfactory, that he sidestepped the issue. Congress had already proposed to abolish war time legislation, and this did not meet with the wishes of the President.

There will be a merry war in Washington this spring, which you must watch day by day in order to keep abreast of the times.

We see where the Young Democrats of Texas want to punish everyone who did not support Franklin D. Roosevelt for a fourth term. Youth is usually progressive in its thinking, and for the most part is liberal in its political belief. Just how many young men and women are interested in the Young Democratic organization, we are unable to say. But the organization is right next to the CIO throne, and therefore no doubt speaks the sentiment of that organization. What about Democrats who fought for Roosevelt through one term, and through two terms, and through three terms, but saw the hand of fate and time descending upon this man, and asked that he step aside rather than die in office? When has it come about that it is a crime in Texas to have a thought on politics or religion, or economics? History will prove that those who try to put the brass collar on the people always wind up in ultimate defeat. Unfortunately the Young Democrats have a ruthless taskmaster in the form of CIO, which will bring this group to a disastrous end. Furthermore, Young Democrats should remember that Roosevelt was never a strict party man, and did not hesitate to step outside the ranks of the Democratic party for help.

What are the returning veterans thinking of this America which they left to fight for? We see where one GI broke the jaw of the first striker he saw. We hear that other GIs are threatening to take charge of the government on this election year. The cry for bonuses is already being raised. With about 10 million men and women turned loose from the service by the end of this year, we shall likely see a lot of things happen which may be a surprise to us old timers. We are glad to see that most of the returning veterans, so far as Randall county is concerned, have settled down on their jobs, and are asking only for a chance to make a living. The situation will be vastly different in industrial centers where economic strife is at the boiling point. All of us wish that we knew just what is going to happen.

The political session of the Texas Senate has hit a snag—as was to be expected. The Governor was notified that the Senate was in session and ready to receive his list of appointments. Calculating Coke said nothing. The Senators recessed for 10 days to await the decision of the Governor. There was nothing for them to do in the meanwhile, since the Governor has 10 days in which to submit his appointments to any session. Senator Moore of Houston and Senator Martin of Fort Worth are the leading lights in this special session. Both claim that the Governor promised to appoint him Attorney General when Gerald C. Mann resigned. It is stated that Mann would not resign and step aside as a potential candidate for Governor against Stevenson unless Sellars was appointed. At least Sellars got the job; both Moore and Martin have their knives out for Stevenson; good men have been rejected simply because of this feud. We note with pleasure that our Senator Grady Hazlewood did not attend the opening session. The Governor states that if the Supreme Court rules that this session is legal that he will submit his list of appointments within 10 minutes. This puts the monkey squarely on the back of Moore and Martin to convince the Supreme Court that the session is legal. If the session is legal, Senator Hazlewood will have plenty of time to reach Austin and participate. We shall see what we shall see.

Directors of the Panhandle Press Association met Saturday to formulate the program for the 37th Annual Convention on April 12-13. Newspaper men reflect conditions of their towns. Every publisher reports that a building boom has started in his town, but materials are not available; that business men are amazed at the lack of merchandise; that the people are confused in the slowness of reconversion; that the people are bitter against strikes as well as the bull-headed attitude of management; that veterans are jockeying for political positions; that 1946 should be a great year if all citizens will go to work instead of wasting their time and their savings in wasteful manners. The present situation is far from rosy. All of us thought that after the war ended everything would return to normal. But it has started a national uproar. It is time for clear minds and straight thinking.

A citizen made this observation the other day: Congress should freeze government bonds; and should limit the term of office throughout the nation. He argued that strikers are wasting their savings in useless strikes. Most of them are having to cash in their bonds in order to loaf. And as to the second point he argued that office holders who come fresh from the people are more likely to perform the duties which the people wish. There is too much dictatorship in human nature, and those who stay in office too long are liable to want to stay forever. He pointed to the case of a member of Congress from Texas, who is 85 years old, in a wheel chair, and seldom back home; yet he is a candidate for re-election this year. Well, you can think it over. It is a good sign when men are thinking and want to do something for the good of the nation.

We are told that the stock market is booming, and that the suckers are spending their money like water. Simmering it down to the fine point, the stock market is a high powered gambling device. The owners of the various companies whose stock are sold do not participate in any way in these sales. Unless there are suckers to trim, those who pay $175,000 for their seats on the market would have no advantage. They would not continue long by simply skinning each other. Don't gamble. Government bonds are the surest investment in the world.

THINGS ONE REMEMBERS

One reads in the newspapers of "picket lines" preventing the owners or managers of factory properties from having access to their own premises. One wonders why we refer to the United States as a free nation. Such circumstances indicate complete capitulation of the police powers of cities and states to the organized forces of revolution.

Suppose, for example, if a strike-bound plant, management would hire pickets to prevent employees from entering their own homes so long as they were on strike. Can you imagine such a condition being allowed to exist? And yet, legally and morally, where is it any different from labor union paid pickets preventing the owners and managers of factories from entering their own properties?

There are clearly two kinds of law enforcement in the United States today, and it is frightening to see how the rights of minorities are ignored by our lawmakers, our courts and our police power.

We are more than glad that we are not an officer in this civilian army. Those boys—our boys—the boys from Randall and other counties—made the best soldiers in the world when it came to fighting. But now they want to come home, and want no further delays. The Democratic idea predominates to a greater extent than was ever anticipated. Rather than punish those who protest delays, officers are meeting with the men, and trying to reason with them.

We see that every liquor store has large signs urging that citizens shall pay their poll tax. The liquor stores are mixing patriotism with their selfish interest in their own affairs. Their appeal goes to men and women who patronize booze joints. They are fearful that the wild orgy of drinking will be so repulsive that the nation may return to prohibition. We are told that the biggest drive to oust booze in Texas will be staged this year. No wonder the liquor stores want their patrons to be armed with poll tax receipts.

We cannot use strong enough words in urging that every man and woman of legal age in Randall county shall pay his poll tax before January 31. We hear rumblings that there will be several hot political races this year. These races may not develop in Randall county, but we are going to see the fur fly in the state races. You will want to have a part in this election, and the only way you can do it is to be armed with a poll tax receipt.

There seems to be a definite swing against compulsory military training in the nation. A few months ago it was almost assured that educators would favor the plan. The Association of American Colleges has definitely voiced its disapproval in the following words: "We are unimpressed by its educational and disciplinary claims, and would support it only if convinced it is indispensable to America and world security."

NO HALFWAY STATION

No sincere effort has been made to return to the free markets of a pre-war America. The web of government control is expanding rather than contracting, and shortages are increasing instead of becoming less acute. The emergency control over prices established for the sake of the war effort, has degenerated into a mad effort to escape the inevitable maladjustments of war and a perpetually rising public debt. A decision must eventually be made: We either return to the hazards and blessings of economic independence or we go all the way in setting up a total, autocratic government. There is no halfway station.

Henry Hazlett, writing in the New York Times, emphasized the latter when he said: "A great number of people try to evade this issue by talking complacently of a 'middle way.' What they overlook is the inevitable tendency of government intervention to grow upon itself. For an effort to prevent the free operation of a market economy at one crucial point has consequences that force interference at a second point, and then at a third. Government control spreads in ever-widening circles. It moves toward a regimented economy."

"Against all objections the OPA replies that its price ceilings are preventing inflation. That is no doubt what the equivalent of the OPA in Rumania thinks. Last week it made further drives against the black market there and seized huge quantities of gold and goods in raids. But prices in Rumania, none the less, have increased thousands of times above the pre-war level. Apparently there is a point beyond which price fixing is, at best, futile. What can the price fixers do when the government prints more than 2,500,000 lei daily?"

"The United States is not Rumania. The difference, however, are in degree, not in principle. The basic cause of our mild inflation is the same as of the superinflation of Europe—an unbalanced budget, and the constant issuance of more money and bank credit. Governments all over the world are busy today grinding out more money with their right hand, and trying with their left to prevent it from exercising its inevitable effects. The result is an increasing control over industry brought about by their own policies."

School Press Leaders Chosen to Head Association

Outstanding high school journalists will direct affairs of the Panhandle High School Press Association this year according to an announcement made at headquarters of the organization.

Three of the officers are editors of their school papers. These are Patsie Northcutt of Amarillo, president; Anna Merle Cox of Pampa, vice-president; and Jo Ella Hussey of White Deer, secretary. The treasurer, Alvin Jennings of Canyon, is an executive of the yearbook at West Texas high school.

These officers were elected by a mail vote, inasmuch as the organization's convention plans in 1945 were cancelled by O. D. T. regulations. This year a convention will be held at Canyon in the spring.

The association has its permanent headquarters at West Texas State where Olin E. Hinkle, director of journalism, is the general sponsor. Its history dates back to 1934.

College Decides Summer Plans

Ten-Week Session
To Begin June 4;
New Nursery School

In order that teachers and high school seniors of this region may start their plans now for next summer, West Texas State College has made the major decisions concerning the 1946 summer session.

The length of the session will be ten weeks. Classes will meet five days each week, Monday through Friday, and will be one hour in length. The maximum class load will be twelve semester hours for the ten weeks.

Opening of the summer session has been set for Tuesday, June 4. Commencement exercises will take place on the evening of August 13. Final examinations will be given on August 12 and 13.

President J. A. Hill has announced that a nursery school will be a special feature. It will be directed by a home economics specialist. Summer lyceum features will be announced soon by a committee headed by Dr. Wallace R. Clark of the department of music.

Offer Special Courses

Various departments are setting up workshops and offering special courses which reflect changing world conditions. These will include work in international relations, non-technical science, education, graduate studies, the arts, and journalism. Studies in crafts and vocations will be expanded according to the demand, especially the demand from exservice men and women.

In addition to undergraduate work leading to B. A., B. S., and Bachelor of Business Administration degrees, the College will offer major studies, leading to the Master of Arts degree in business administration, chemistry, education, English, history, modern languages, social sciences, and speech. Minors will be available in art, business administration, chemistry, mathematics, geography, modern languages, music, sociology, and speech.

The Graduate School, headed by Dr. A. M. Meyer, will stress a counseling program for students of research. A special graduate reading room will be opened.

Good Summer Prospects

With transportation facilities becoming more available, West Texas State will draw from a wider area next summer. The cool Panhandle climate, ideal for study, will appeal to many downstate students. Recreation will include several all-college and freshman picnics, playthings with supervised games and intramural sports, dances, swimming, and visits to nearby lakes and canyons.

Summer activities also will include open forums, programs of recordings, a faculty reception, assemblies, lectures, and demonstrations. The Demonstration School will be operated through twelve grades.

Room and board at Cousins Hall will cost $80 for the ten weeks of the summer session, and at Randall Hall will cost $70. The Randall cost on the cooperative plan will be $50. Room only, at Stafford and Terrill halls for men, will be priced at $32 and $20 for the session, respectively. Dormitories will be open for occupancy on June 3.

Dr. M. Lee Starke, an evangelist, was thrown into jail on the charge of contempt of court by Justice of the Peace Arnett Moreland. The preacher charged that he had seen gambling on the streets of Canyon Sunday morning on his way to church. Moreland opened a court of inquiry and demanded that Starke give information regarding his charge. This the evangelist refused to do. A prayer meeting was held around the jail. The preacher was released after he had made satisfactory statements.

Dr. H. H. Latson closed his practice in Canyon and moved to Amarillo.

Davis Hill, son of President and Mrs. J. A. Hill, was appointed a page in the House of Representatives at Austin.

Lee Satterwhite, State Representative from this district, was appointed chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

Variety Show On Tour to 3 Plains Towns

Today, the W. T. Variety Show traveled to Dimmitt, Bovina and Friona.

Each week the Swing Band will do a few numbers for the "G. I. Revue" over KGNC. On Friday night it played for the Beta dance.

A pious but cranky old lady who lived alone was greatly annoyed because her neighbors forgot to ask her to go on their picnic. On the morning of the event they suddenly realized their affront and sent a little boy to ask her to come along. "It's too late now," she snapped. "I've already prayed for rain."

Clarence Darrow was once asked to give his definition of a smart man.

"A smart man," he replied with a twinkle in his eyes, "is a fellow who hasn't let a woman pin anything on him since he was a baby."

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

At least once to every man comes a moment when he touches the hem of Romance's robes, no matter how drab his daily round of life.

Herman Hackmeyer sold hardware for a San Antonio house over Southwest Texas. He was short and pudgy of figure, red of countenance, with mild blue eyes and a harmless expression. Yet even the prosaic "Hack" had his fleeting minutes of glory.

Probably you are incapable of imagining such a thing to be true but there was a time when wrestling was a sport and not a hippodroming affair. This was years before World War I. Frank Gotch, the Iowa Farmer, otherwise the Cornhusker Giant, was champion of the world and the title-holder of Europe was Hackenschmidt, the Russian Lion. Hackenschmidt was short, thick-set and tremendously powerful.

It was inevitable that the two should meet and Kansas City was chosen for the battle. Gotch arrived early and set up training camp; but two weeks before the match, "Hack" had not yet appeared and so the fans were excitedly expecting him momentarily.

And it was at this juncture that Herman Hackmeyer was dealt his prize hand by smiling Fate.

The hardware drummer stepped from a train in Kansas City, and, as he entered the Union Station, an acquaintance called out "Hello, Hack."

Now it was a cold day and the traveling salesman was wrapped in a huge overcoat that gave his fat form the appearance of a stump-like physique of great power.

A "red cap" murmured in an awed tone to the traveler whose suitcases he was carrying, "Gee dat's Hackenschmidt"—and the word swept across the station. There were cries on all sides "Hurray fer Hack" and Hackmeyer acknowledged the acclaim with bows.

As he walked to the hotel, the tidings had preceded him; newsboys, shine-boys, messenger boys, brewery wagon drivers, fruit vendors, ice men, in short the citizenry in general called out, "Hyah, Hack" or "Good boy Hack." A few of the bolder stepped forward for a handshake, and so was born many a boast in the John I. Sullivan tradition. "Shake the hand that shook the hand of Hackenschmidt."

Hackmeyer, with shoulders thrown back, swung along with stately tread, for during that walk he felt himself indeed to be the Russian Lion.

"That was years ago and it lasted only fifteen minutes," he said with a sigh and a smile in the lobby of the hotel at Cotulla, "but it was the climax of my life."

Prices Contribute To Museum Fund

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Price of Stratford recently made a donation of $1,000 to the Plains Museum Building fund here. Mr. Price is a pioneer banker and cattleman in Sherman county.

The Prices went to Stratford as a young married couple. At that time, the people of Sherman County devoted their efforts almost exclusively to livestock raising.

As a banker, Mr. Price has taken a leading part in the development of the Northern Panhandle into a prosperous stockfarming region. He has "grown up with the country" and he is interested in all phases of its development.

"We have the finest country in the world," said Mr. Price, "and we are glad to do anything we can to help preserve its history and its culture."

A total of $60,000 is needed to complete a two-story addition to the museum. Construction was halted by the war. Many valuable collections cannot be received by the museum until the addition is completed.

BONNY BAIRN

Two revellers approached a railway ticket window. One was carrying his friend in his arms. The weight caused him to stagger.

"Two tickets to Manchester," he said.

The clerk studied the money that was handed to him.

"Wait a minute," he said. "You only gave me the price of one ticket. How about your friend?"

The first man looked fondly at the fellow he was carrying in his arms.

"He's only a baby, mister," he explained. "Only four years old."

The astounded clerk took a second look.

"Four years old, my eye!" he cried. "Why this fellow you're carrying is over six feet tall, weighs about 160 pounds—and has a beard as thick as a mattress!"

The ticket buyer dropped his burden unceremoniously.

"You idiot!" he howled at his pal. "I told you to shave."

Tribute Is Paid to Pioneer Citizen, Mrs. Hix

I wish I had the ability to write a tribute worthy of the memory of Mrs. I. N. Hix, but words are inadequate; a life like she lived is past human expression.

Her family has lost a wonderful mother and we have lost a wonderful friend.

The day of the funeral, Judge Bishop said, "Galloway, what are you doing down here in Randall County?" Mr. Galloway replied, "We are here to attend Mrs. Hix's funeral, she ranked next to our own family in our hearts."

When we came to this country from Missouri, Oct. 12, 1908, we went direct to her rooming house and lived there nine months. We were strangers in a strange land. In the late winter, our three-year-old daughter, Nellie, was stricken with a serious attack of scarlet fever, diphtheria and complications. It was a long, hard siege of sickness.

Mrs. Hix's rooming house was quarantined; Louis and Neva were out of school three weeks in consequence. The house was full of roomers, all threatening to leave on account of the contagion.

The entire town was concerned. The house was disrupted in every way. We had caused a whole lot of trouble.

But Mrs. Hix's courage never faltered. She ministered to us day and night and never at any time did she by word, deed or attitude, ever make us feel that we were unwanted or unwelcome.

She was truly wonderful in her cheerful happy manner.

Twelve years later, we went back to her home for nine months to send Nellie to College. This time in mid-winter we all three came down with a serious attack of flu, and all were very sick for two weeks. Again Mrs. Hix came to the rescue and was the same angel of mercy.

We made a practice of going back at least once a year for a few hours' visit with her, and went to see her about one month before she passed away. She knew us and was happy to see us.

After being bed-ridden for months, her only grievance was, she was afraid she was not worthy of God's blessings.

She requested me to pray for her, and I never felt my own unworthiness so much, as when I approached God's throne in her behalf.

I think perhaps the trait that endeared Mrs. Hix to us most, was her utter self effacement. She forgot herself entirely in her service for others.

She ministered kindness and helped every one that came her way, day after day, year after year, not once realizing she had done anything unusual.

And she told me not long ago, that when she stood before the judgement bar of God, she would not ask for justice, she would plead for mercy.

We, and her host of friends, are with her children in spirit in their sorrow. But we should not grieve for her, as for one who had no hope. She was a true Christian, and lived it every day. We are reminded of the words of the Apostle Paul, "She has fought a good fight, she has finished her course, she has kept the faith. There is now laid up for her a crown of righteousness.

The last time we visited her, Mr. Galloway said, "Mrs. Hix, I want you to be able to run a race with me the next time I come." That keen sense of humor that never failed her and which had helped her surmount many obstacles on life's path, asserted itself, and with the strength and animation that she could muster, tried to raise herself on her elbow and said "I'll bet I beat you."

She has truly made the race and won the victory. And when her brave spirit took its flight, I'm sure she heard the welcome assurance, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

Mrs. J. H. Galloway, Claude, Tex.

We will never feel we are living in a postwar period until we hear again these once familiar statements: (1) Pass the butter, please. (2) I have an apartment for rent. (3) It isn't worth repairing. (4) I'm an experienced maid and want to work. (5) Fill 'er up! (6) Make mine a juicy, thick, sirloin steak. (7) Send a cab right out. (8) The customer is always right, and (9) Our prices are the lowest in town.

A white ant isn't an ant but a termite.

Color Blindness Is Not Incurable

Doctor Finds Treatment That Gives Good Results.

NEW YORK.—The almost universal belief that color blindness is incurable is challenged by some treatments with vitamins and cobra venom reported by Dr. Knight Dunlap, psychologist, of the University of California, Los Angeles.

The treatments were massive doses of vitamin A and B-1, supplemented by injections of cobra venom developed by Dr. Edward I. Macht of Mount Sinai hospital, Baltimore. The medical work was done by Dr. Robert D. Loken of the University of California. The results appear in the Journal of Comparative Psychology.

Dr. Dunlap proposes that a low protein diet beginning in childhood may be responsible for most cases of color blindness. It also is possible, he says, that diseases of early life may be a cause.

"That children," he writes, "weaned on the diet of cereals and strained vegetables so foolishly recommended a generation ago might become color blind at an early age is probable."

"Since children who do not learn to eat meat at an early age tend to remain vegetarians thereafter, we may well expect color blindness acquired in early childhood to become more serious with the passing years. 'The supposed cases of congenital (hereditary) color blindness undoubtedly are in this category.'"

Dr. Dunlap adds that a reduction in color blindness can be expected on account of the present regime of feeding infants liver and minced beefsteak.

OPA Officials Admit Higher Cost of Clothing

WASHINGTON. — Chances have virtually disappeared for the 6 to 7 per cent cut in clothing prices OPA predicted would be achieved this year.

OPA officials who asked that they not be named acknowledged this in the wake of additional price concessions to the garment industry.

These concessions mean that for the rest of this year most manufacturers can make fewer low-priced garments than they have been required to heretofore.

In another action, OPA announced that the public soon may have to pay more for cotton towels and flannel diapers, shirts and nightwear. This is expected to result from an increase given to manufacturers under terms of the price control act.

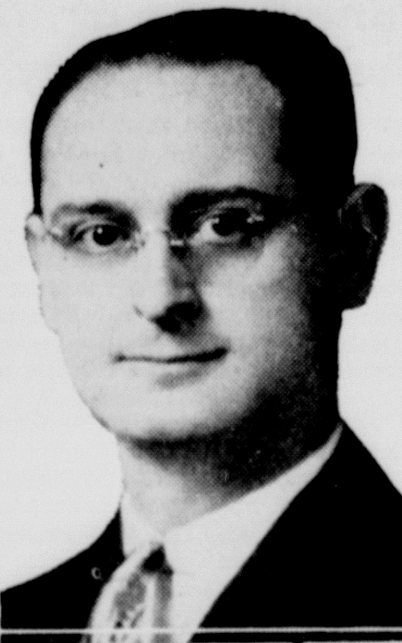

OPA officials held to a hope that there will be some reduction of clothing prices by the end of the year. (They have climbed nearly 14 per cent since the hold-the-line order was issued in May, 1943.) But it is generally conceded in the agency that a 6 to 7 per cent cut is out.

OPA said the concessions to manufacturers will not mean any increase in retail ceilings for garments. It means, rather, that a housewife, for example, will have to spend a little more for a dress because a cheaper one is not available.

KNEW HIS WIFE

Jones was a druggist, and when his wife ran away with another man he inserted the following advertisement in the local paper:

"This is to notify the party who so kindly relieved me of my wife that I can supply him with liniments, bandages, arnica, healing salves, absorbent cotton, iodine, sleeping powders, and crutches at rock-bottom prices."

We got a tip on the races once that meant real money to us. A fellow informed us that the wife was at the track, and we arrived just in time to keep her from making any bets.

ACC Wildcats Lose to Buffs

Locals Look Raged But Outclass Visitors in Contest Here Friday

Abilene Christian College's Wildcats were on the loose for a brief period Friday night and local fans began to wonder whether the Buffs were to have an "off" night. In the opening minutes of the cage battle, the visiting ACC team fought on even terms, holding brief leads. But midway in the first half West Texas began hitting and soon took the lead to the tune of 29 to 13.

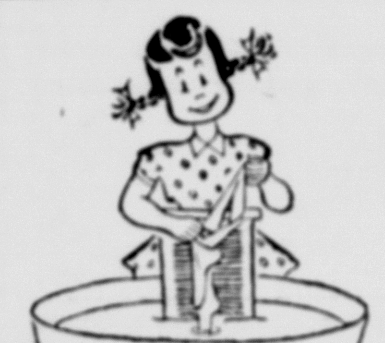

ACC was too good for the W. T. reserves but not good enough to stay on even ground with the Buffalo starters. These starters include J. W. Malone, Borden Price, Hank Decker, Don Leach, and Bill Miller. Reserves included Jack Tomberlin, Pinkey Jackson, Charles Taylor, John Budenholzer, and Glenn Brotherton.

The second team ran the score to 36 to 19 at halftime. After the intermission, the Wildcats began to scamper and made seven points. This really cut the West Texas lead to 10 points, 36 to 26.

Coach Miller rushed Buff starters in and a few moments later the Buffalo cagers had completely outclassed the visitors. Both teams were somewhat off, but the game was not a dull one. Play was rough enough to make things interesting. Abilene Christian College has just begun its sports program after suspending it throughout the war.

Malone, West Texas' ace guard, didn't have an extra good night but took high point honors with 14. Decker, Buff center, was outstanding on defense. Miller and Price played a good game, offensively and defensively. J. E. Smith and Dub Winkles were outstanding players for ACC. Interesting was the fact that sons of the two coaches played against each other. Charles Morris, son of the Abilene coach, played opposite Bill Miller, Coach

Cash and pledges in the W. T. chapel building fund now total more than $20,000, it was announced by President J. A. Hill yesterday. Of this total, cash in hand amounts to $16,591.51.

Contributions are coming in every day, but an intensification of the drive will be necessary if it is to be completed and construction started by next summer.

Carson county, which is setting the pace in contributions to the West Texas State chapel building fund, has raised its total to $2,278, according to the Panhandle Herald.

The goal in the entire chapel campaign is $50,000. President J. A. Hill is urging that various Panhandle counties complete their drives as soon as possible. If this is done, it may be possible to let the contract for the museum in the coming spring.

Mrs. Fred Surratt has been in charge of the campaign at Panhandle. Her assistants, according to the Herald, are Kellus Turner, Mrs. Eva E. Craig, Miss Margaret Britten, H. G. Robinson, and Mrs. W. W. Evans. Contributions are being taken by Dalton Ford at White Deer, Mrs. Groves Burum at Pleasant Plains, Mrs. Paul Russ at Kingsmill, and Miss Margaret Lill at Hobart.

Sponsors of the campaign in Carson county have figured out that the chapel fund would be raised if every person in the Panhandle would contribute 50 cents. On this basis, Carson county would contribute $3,276.50. A relatively small number of persons contributed the $2,278 already in hand.

GENERALLY THE CASE

She was pretty and ambitious and had studied the matrimonial problem to a nicety.

"Yes, I suppose I shall marry eventually," she said, "but the only kind of masculine nuisance that will suit me must be tall and dark with classical features. He must be brave, yet gentle. He must be strong—a lion among men, but a knight among women."

That evening a bow-legged, lath-framed, chinless youth, wearing flannel bags and smoking a cigarette that smelt worse than a burning boot, rattled on the back door and the girl knocked four tumblers and a cut glass dish off the sideboard in her haste to let him in.

Filling out an application for a dependency allotment a soldier answered "No" to the question as to whether he had any dependents. "You've got a wife, haven't you?" asked the sergeant.

"Yes," replied the soldier, "but she ain't dependable."

Miss Gaume Gives Concert in Kansas

Wichita, Kansas' Saturday Afternoon Musical Club heard a concert given by Miss Matilda Gaume, music teacher of West Texas State, January 3, which was presented in the art galleries.

Also on the program were a violinist and a flute player. Selections rendered by Miss Gaume were "Sonata," Op. 26 and "Andante" by Beethoven, "Etude," Op. 25, No. 5, "Nocturne," Op. 15 No. 2, and "Ballade," Op. 23, No. 1, by Chopin.

HORSE DEAL

Mr. P., a member of one of Boston's principal horse-dealing firms, was one day trying very hard to sell a horse to the late Gov. Wolcott. After assuring him the animal was just what he wanted in every way, sound, without a blemish, not a pimple on him, afraid of nothing, not even steam cars, they proceeded to take a drive to test the animal's qualities.

All went well till they reached Cottage Farm bridge, when a train dashed under and the horse nearly dashed over with fright.

"I thought," said the Governor, "he was not afraid of cars."

"Well, to tell the truth," returned Mr. P., unabashed, "it ain't the cars he minds, it's the engine."

Two men were brought before a judge for fighting in the street.

"Couldn't this case be settled out of court?" asked the judge.

"That's what we were doing," answered one of the combatants, "when the cop pinched us."

A customs officer, while examining a sailor's baggage, discovered a bottle of whiskey. "I thought you told me there were only night clothes in that suitcase?"

"Right," replied the gob, "that's my night cap."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the kind and thoughtful attentions to us during the illness and death of our loved one. Your expressions of sympathy help to lighten the sorrow. N. E. Root and family.

Ever notice how we compare people with animals? We say they are meek as a lamb, sly as a fox, fleet as a deer, gentle as a dog, sound as a hound's tooth, strong as an ox, savage as a lion, graceful as a fawn, dirty as a pig, awkward as a newborn colt, and stubborn as a mule.

The wife sent sonny over to see how old Mrs. Reemy was this morning and he came back to report 83 years and six months.
